RE: South Dakota Arts Council FY2022 & FY2023 Annual Report

The South Dakota Arts Council (SDAC) works to advance South Dakota's artistic and cultural vitality through funding, connection, and resources based on these values: access to the arts is essential in daily life across South Dakota; the arts connect communities, cultures, and generations; the arts are a vital component of South Dakota's economy; and a vibrant arts ecosystem attracts, sustains, and advances a diverse population of professionals across all sectors. To that end, SDAC presents a special report during the 2024 legislative session.

The South Dakota Arts Council FY2022 & FY2023 Annual Report includes a complete listing of grants, initiatives, and special projects awarded to South Dakota organizations, schools, and artists for state fiscal years 2022 and 2023. Following the COVID-19 pandemic that hit in 2020, the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) – the source of SDAC's federal funds – automatically extended the period for our State Partnership Agreements by two years to allow flexibility as we responded to the needs of the arts sector and partner communities across South Dakota. This essentially resulted in SDAC managing multiple fiscal years simultaneously because of the accommodations extended to grantees so they could complete or reschedule their proposed activities. SDAC's last report focused on state fiscal years 2020-2021, so this year we offer another extended edition of our annual report, covering FY22 and FY23. (Past reports on pandemic-relief funds issued by SDAC, both federal and state, have been provided to the Legislature and are available at ArtsCouncil.sd.gov; this report instead focuses on all other grants issued by South Dakota's state arts agency over that period.)

This report will show an increase to our agency's grants, initiatives, and special projects budget over the last two fiscal years, indicating a rebound in the sector and a significant and positive impact on South Dakota's arts landscape. In FY22, SDAC awarded over $1.5 million in grant support resulting in about $17.75 million in local spending. Supported activities reached 694,868 people, including 223,288 youth and involving 15,019 artists. In total, SDAC's grants, initiatives, and special projects budget made up nearly 78% of the agency's overall budget, funding 335 grants in 85 different communities across the state in FY22.

The South Dakota Arts Council remains committed to serving all South Dakotans and their communities through the arts. SDAC helps make quality arts opportunities accessible throughout the state by providing encouragement, grants, services, and information to artists, arts organizations, schools and the public.

SOUTH DAKOTA ARTS COUNCIL CELEBRATING 58 YEARS OF SERVICE

Established in 1966 and funded by the State Legislature and the National Endowment for the Arts, the South Dakota Arts Council is a state agency serving South Dakotans and their communities through the arts. The Arts Council is comprised of four full-time staff members within Travel South Dakota and its advisory board, the 11 members of which are appointed by the Governor.

The South Dakota Arts Council was created to unify and coordinate the development of the arts across the state through public service, arts education programs, access and inclusion, cultural tourism, grants, and services, and to act as the steward of the state's federal appropriation from the National Endowment for the Arts.

PURPOSE

Recognizing the importance of creativity in the lives of all South Dakotans, the Arts Council makes quality arts accessible throughout the state by providing encouragement, grants, services, and information to artists, arts organizations, schools, and the public. The Council strives to ensure access to the arts and educational arts opportunities as part of lifelong learning in South Dakota.

VISION

Our vision is to transform South Dakota's communities and people through the arts. We see deeper public awareness broadening appreciation for the fine arts; better arts education reviving school environments; wider access to the arts fostering understanding among cultures; and artists and arts organizations enhancing the quality of life for all South Dakotans.

VALUES

To accomplish its mission and support its vision, the Arts Council is guided by a strategic plan informed by input from constituents throughout the state and grounded in public values. We believe:

- Greater public awareness of the value of the arts fosters sustained public and private support.
- Arts education stimulates creativity, communication, and lifelong learning.
- Universal access to the arts is intrinsic to the well-being of all South Dakotans.
- Artists are central to the creative environment of South Dakota.
- Arts organizations contribute to vibrant, progressive communities.
- The arts play an essential role in cultural tourism.

ANNUAL REPORT ARTWORK:

No Fences, shown above, was painted in 2009 by South Dakota artist Kat Thompson of Whitewood, SD. This 41" x 23.5" oil on canvas was purchased for the 2023 Art For State Buildings program. No Fences is currently on display on the 4th floor annex of the State Capitol building in Pierre. Special thanks to Kat for allowing pieces of her artwork to help us explain a positive outlook in 2022 and 2023 for the arts in South Dakota.

ABOUT THE ART:

"This piece depicts the vast, wide-open prairie on a large South Dakota cattle ranch. The breeze is bending the prairie grasses as a young rancher and his trusty working cowdog are watching from a high bluff as the cattle are trailing out to summer pasture. South Dakota is known for its excellent beef production and is one of our state's top agricultural industries."

ABOUT THE ARTIST:

Kat grew up in ranch country in western South Dakota and continues to work out of her Purple Sage Studio (purplesagestudio.net) in Whitewood, SD, where she has an endless bounty of resource material to depict the western lifestyle.

Though she is self-taught, Kat has taken advanced classes in sculpting, oil, and watercolor and is always striving to study and learn from artists she admires. Kat shows and sells originals, prints and giclees of her work in several galleries and shows across South Dakota. She has two pieces in the Art For State Buildings program.

For more information on the collection, visit the SDAC website at artscouncil.sd.us.

FY2022

In Fiscal Year 2022, the South Dakota Arts Council awarded nearly $1.5 million in grant support to arts organizations, schools, artists and other nonprofit organizations to support arts projects and programs throughout the state.

This support returned about $17.75 million in local spending, as well as nearly $750,000 worth of additional in-kind contributions, on supported projects and programs. These figures do not include the additional $250,000 in state emergency pandemic-relief funds distributed by the Arts Council during this same period.

State and federal funds combined yielded a return of $11.86 in local spending for every $1 of public funds invested. Every $1 of state funding invested in the arts by the SDAC returned another $28.10 !

“Even a small investment yields a huge return that spans from economic benefits to community health and wellness. Vibrant arts communities are healthier communities across a broad range of indicators.”

– Patrick Baker, Executive Director of the South Dakota Arts Council

Arts and culture organizations are businesses.

They employ people locally, purchase supplies and services locally, and produce the authentic cultural experiences that are magnets for visitors, tourists, and new residents. The very act of creating, presenting, exhibiting, and engaging has a positive economic impact on the community.

The South Dakota Arts Council works to enhance quality of life, cultural tourism, and economic development across South Dakota.

We do this by providing grants,
programs and technical assistance,
nurturing partnerships,
and supporting efforts to make quality arts opportunities available to all South Dakotans and visitors.
