

ENCOURAGE and UPLIFT
the next generation of South Dakota artists!

TWELVE talented student artists
from FOUR age divisions
will have their work selected for display in the South Dakota Capitol Building
AND have the chance to sell their artwork
to become part of the state art collection!

DEADLINE: November 5, 2026

The competition is open to ANY K-12 student in South Dakota.

NOTE: For students younger than 18, we ask that teachers (art, classroom, homeschool, etc.) or parents/guardians submit the artwork on behalf of students and act as the point of contact.

Submissions are accepted electronically,
via online form submission and emailing image of artwork.
Details can be found online on the South Dakota
